Roxie Stinson

Woman of Mystery

Voluble witness against Daugherty tells a lot of things but has not said anything as to her own personality.

WASHINGTON—Roxie Stinson personifies the mystery which woman is reputed to have presented to man throughout the ages. Although frankness this week before the senate committee investigating Attorney General Daugherty, her personality has baffled Washington with a complete maze of spoken statements and suspected motives. Two nights passed with little sleep, while traveling to Washington, failed to dim or confuse her idea of what she intended to say on the witness stand. Her head was clear, her sense of humor keen. Every sentence she spoke showed business acumen.

Most women would have been miserably self-conscious if attired in last year's spring hat and a 1921 black velvet dress, but Roxie Stinson's poise and self-assurance were perfect.

Her self-confidence was baffling. So was the character of her testimony.

Why did she defame her former husband and his nearest friends?

Why did she have her unconventional conduct so freely?

To hearers it seemed a case where a woman might be forgiven for falsifying but not for speaking the truth.

And Roxie Stinson talked too much. She was clear and definite, and parts of her tale were decidedly [illegible]. But these seemed unnecessary—irrelevant to the subject under investigation. Were those accounts motivated by the cleverness of the woman? Or was it lack of cleverness?

Despite her volubility, some observers thought [illegible] little about herself, and these compared her paucity of statement with the Sphinx-like silence of the woman on the silver dollar, to whose face her profile has been likened.

And up to the present the newspapermen have had no opportunity to obtain answers to their questions by the avenue of a direct interview. For Miss Stinson has been shrouded in mystery since her arrival in Washington. She is "kept in hiding" by the committee and is unreachable.

Senator Wadsworth, of New York, a staunch administration man and a Knickerbocker aristocrat, brought Roxie Stinson's name before the committee. Some Buffalo constituents of the New York [illegible] wrote to him of her and [illegible] relations with Smith and said [illegible] could tell things.

Wadsworth felt it his duty to turn the information over to Senator Brookhart, chairman of the Daugherty investigating committee. Senators are cautious about such things nowadays.

Acting on that information, Senator Wheeler, the chief prosecutor against Daugherty, made a mysterious trip to Columbus.

His knock on her door was a complete surprise to Miss Stinson, but she returned to Washington with the senator and permitted him to put her on the witness stand, there to spring a new sensation on investigation-sated Washington.

ELKINS GOING TO MAKE SPARKS FLY IN SENATE SOON

West Virginia Senator Peeved at Publicity Given His Stock Transactions

CANNOT SEE WHERE SENATE COMES IN

Disgusted with the Whole Mess and Sought Seclusion to Obtain a Rest

(Associated Press)

MIAMI, Fla., March 19.—"When I get back to Washington I am going to make the sparks fly in democratic circles," Senator Davis Elkins of West Virginia, stated here today after reading the dispatches from Washington in which it was charged that he had dealt extensively in Sinclair oil stocks, from March 16, 1922, to April 9, 1923.

"The mud-slinging going on in Washington today is an outrage," Senator Elkins said. "It is a political move to remove confidence on the part of the public in officials and if continued will make this country another Russia."

"The senate is overstepping its powers in the investigation it is undertaking," continued the senator whose vote stood out 1 to 66 against the senate's action when the question of the investigation was first put to a vote.

"The senate has the power to impeach but not the power to instruct the president in regard to his cabinet," he said.

"As to my dealing in stock that is purely a personal matter. The Washington report is a little shy, if anything, on the number of shares I bought, but the crux of the whole affair rests on whether the Teapot Dome and the San Francisco deals were obtained fraudulently. If we to stop buying and selling the world would stop.

"I am disgusted with the whole mess, so much that I quit Washington and came down here for three or four weeks to get away from it. I think the United States senate has lost its senses.

"Not one bit of incriminating evidence has been produced yet, and I can't see where the senate comes in on the matter. It has employed the best attrneys, men in whom all have confidence, and it should rest there.

"The democrats have overplayed their hand. They h ave been telegraphing me to come back to Washington but I shall not go until I get ready."

BURNS DENIES ANY FILM PROTECTION

Says Holdridge Tried to String Him With His Story About Muma

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 19.—William J. Burns, chief of the department of justice bureau of investigation, issued a statement today in reply to the testimony of G. O. Holdridge, a former agent who testified to the committee Monday that he had reported the connection of Jap Muma with the alleged arrangements to permit exhibition of the Carpentier-Dempsey fight films. Holdridge testified that when he became active he was moved about the country on other affairs and that one agent had been sent to Haiti, ostensibly to stop his work.

Burns said in his statement that after Holdridge became involved in the liquor party at Sunset Inn, near Troy, N. Y., in which he drew a revolver and was arrested, "he sought all sorts of political and social influences" to prevent his discharge "and his wife sent a most pitiful letter, enclosing with it a photograph of herself and children."

Holdridge, Burns said in his statement, "went like a child," pleading that he would be disgraced."

"Up to that time, Burns said, Holdridge had never mentioned Muma or the fight films; but later came and told of Muma's alleged conversation with Attorney General Daugherty.

At that time, Burns said, he withdrew his request for Holdridge's resignation and sent him back to work up more information.

From further reports Burns concluded that Holdridge was "stringing" him, and declined to send him back to the Albany district but kept him busy in Cleveland.

Holdridge resisted the change of location, Burns said, and resigned, saying he "did not intend to be made a goat by Muma."

"I told him he could go as far as he liked in his prosecution of Muma, that we had no interest in the matter," said Burns.

Holdridge, Burns said, was not investigating fight films when he was transferred to Cleveland and Agent Navarro, whom Holdridge testified was sent to Haiti to stop his investigation, he added, was not moved until months after he had finished his investigation.

"There was no protection at any time whatever," said Burns. "On the other hand, the matter of fight films was vigorously prosecuted throughout the country."

DARDEN TOLD OF EFFORTS TO GET OIL LAND LEASE

Could Make No Headway With Either Democratic or Republican Administration

POLITICAL GOSSIP WAS TOLD BY GILMORE

Had No Real Information but Had Heard a Lot of Things at Republican Convention

WASHINGTON, March 19.—After lifting the lid of another box of rumors, those having to do with "oil deals" at the Chicago republican convention in 1920, the oil committee turned back today to the lease of the Teapot Dome to Harry F. Sinclair and efforts of "independents" to enforce "claims" there.

The gossip concerning the Chicago convention was retold the senate investigators by Tiffin Gilmore, department secretary of state of Ohio and a supporter of Major-General Leonard Wood in 1920. He stated frankly that he had no first hand information concerning the "gossip" with which he asserted the atmosphere at the Chicago convention was "supercharged."

James G. Darden, friend of President Harding and a man experienced in the world of business and politics, told of vain efforts of himself and his associates to establish "rights" in the Wyoming reserve and of the conversations on the subject with President Harding, Secretary Fall and Attorney General Daugherty.

During long and vigorous cross examination by Senator Walsh of Montana, committee prosecutor, Darden quoted president Harding as having said: "Fall is kind of TNT on the subject of clearing the reserve."

He flatly denied the statement contained in a letter from Fall to Mr. Harding that Attorney General Daugherty had sent Darden to the interior secretary about the lease, describing efforts he had made to obtain a lease in Salt Creek field, adjoining the Teapot Dome, before the interior department in 1920, during the democratic administration.

Darden said that a Mr. Taylor, who was contesting his claim, came to Washington "with Mr. Wilson, a brother of President Wilson," as his attorney. Secretary Payne recorded his claim in that contest, he added.

Gilmore told of rumors current at the convention that oil interests were ready to throw their support to a canndate for a consideration: that an offer had been made to General Wood by the late Jake Hamon, then republican National committeeman from Oklahoma, to support him in return for his appointed as secretary of the interior; and that General Wood had refused to entertain it.

The only specific information obtained from Gilmore was of the conversation he had had with Carmi A. Tompson of Cleveland, Ohio, concerning the oil land in the course of which Gilmore quoted Tompson as saying: "We need the letter, now more than ever." Gilmore did not identify the oil land which was the subject of the conversation.

A subpoena was issued for Tompson, who was a republican candidate for governor of Ohio in 1922 and who is now campaign manager in that State for President Coolidge.

Dines, on the stand, showed a memory considerably improved over that which characterized his previous examination but his "I don't know" was just as strongly in evidence when questioned about the shooting.

He admitted to Justice J. Walter Hanby that he was drunk at the time, able to walk but not able to walk straight.

Edna Purviance, film actress, a member of the party at Dines' apartment, where the oil operator said she had spent the day, again was called to the stand. She reiterated previous testimony that she was in the bathroom when the shooting occurred.

WAS PROSECUTION OF HOME BUILDER EVIDENCE SHOWED

But Stewart Said it Had Not Been Done According to His View of Procedure

NO EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN BALDWIN

Dawkins Said Former Ranger Mistaken with Regard to Any Attempted Blackmail

(Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 19—The Daugherty investigating committee had a brief session today because Senator Wheeler, the committee "prosecutor," had a bad cold and remained at home.

Will A. Orr, former private secretary to Governor Whitman of New York, was waiting to be grilled further about the film "deals" and whisky "deals" on which he testified yesterday; but the committee turned aside from Orr to hear briefly again Maco Stewart, a Galveston lawyer, who complained in his testimony yesterday that the department of justice had been remiss in prosecuting lotteries and to hear briefly also T. D. Hawkins, a Texas postoffice inspector.

Mr. Howland, the attorney general's counsel, proceeded to show a series of indictments, which he said the department of justice had obtained. Stewart protested they failed to charge "lottery."

"You undersand that all these fraud prosecutions are prepared by the postoffice department and don't come to the justice department, unless a special attorney is asked?" said Mr. Howland.

"I understand that."

"Isn't there a difference of opinion in the courts as to whether these companies are really lotteries?"

"No, there's no difference," Stewart insisted.

Thomas D. Dawkins, a Texas postoffice inspector, was called.

B. C. Baldwin, captain of Texas Rangers and former agent of the department of justice, had testified previously that various Federal officials in Texas tried to "blackmail" oil promoters and named Dawkins as a person able to confirm his charge.

"I conferred with my superior officer about this blackmail allegation," Dawkins testified. "He is George M. Sutton, inspector in charge. He told me there was no evidence to justify Baldwin's belief. He went on to explain that he had investigated the United Home Builders and that Henry Sweifel, United States attorney in Texas, conferred with him in the work.

"We brought in officials of those concerns for a conference," he went on, "and a few days after that I was ordered to proceed to Washington with all the data.

Postmaster General Hays referred the matter to Joseph Stewart, special assistant to the attorney general.

"Mr. Stewart gave the postmaster general an opinion that the loan companies, by eliminating some sections of their contracts, would not be objectionable to the postoffice department. That was at once capitalized by the loan companies."

In answer to a question from Chairman Brookhart, Dawkins replied: "I have no instructions to investigate the loan companies."

"So far as the postoffice department is concerned there's no indication that its unbroken custom was violated in this matter?" asked Senator Moses, republican of New Hampshire.

"No, sir," Dawkins replied.

"In April, 1922, I had a conference with Mr. Zweifel (about the United Home Builders), and he said he did not feel he should institute a prosecution without instructions from the postoffice department in Washington.

"The solicitor of the department told me the Stewart decision had nothing to do with the United Home Builders, and that Mr. Zweifel should proceed if the case had merit.

"In April, 1923, Mr. Zweifel told me that it had been decided that the case should not be pursued; that officials in Washington had come to that decision."

"Do you know whether he had conferred with Attorney General Daugherty?" asked Chairman Brookhart.

"I do not know with whom he conferred."

Dawkins asserted, however, that the records showed "plenty of overt acts well within the statutes of limitation" to justify Zweifel in a prosecution.

A SAFE THAT IS NOT SAFE

Parismade Crates Go Over Wide Territory

Parismade crates go over a wide territory. Few of them are used in Lamar county—though there may come a time when there will be demand for them locally. The Cummer Manufacturing Company is one of the industries which cannot depend upon a local market and must needs seek elsewhere disposal of its product.

Yet there is no institution in the city which does more civic work. No thing that is proposed for the good of Lamar county in which the company does not have its share—gladly and with that spirit of loyalty to Lamar county which has done much to make its executives looked upon as being forward men in the community.

Lamar county material is used, Lamar county people are employed; and the annual disbursements in Lamar are large—practically all brought in from the outside.

If we were all as loyal to our county as are the men who manage the Paris Crate factory we should have a much better county and a larger capital.

Be loyal to your county and TRY PARIS FIRST.

A DECREASE IN LYNCHINGS

During 1923 there were lynchings in only nine States—a very material decrease from the record of the previous year. In these nine States 28 were murdered by mobs; of whom 26 were negroes; including two women.

Only two of the lynchings are charged against Texas; as compared with twelve during the preceding year.

The Federal Council of Churches is of opinion that "Christian men and women are facing the facts regarding lynching and are becoming aroused to the menace of it."

It is sincerely to be hoped that the conclusion of the council is the correct one and that there is real effort to be made.

But the Council further says that the "threat of the Dyer bill" to punish communities where lynchings occur has possibly had some effect and that officials and citizens concerned in the future of their counties are intent upon putting a stop to it.

Possibly that also has had some effect. If so, then the Dyer bill has served a good purpose despite the fact that it is a strongly partisan measure.

OPPOSITION TO WATTS

Because he protected The Law and fulfilled his official oath, opposition has developed to Sheriff Watts of Angelina county. When a mob insisted upon breaking into the jail in order to secure a negro accused of murder, Sheriff Watts (or members of his posse) fired into the mob, wounding four.

The negro was duly tried, convicted and is now in the death chamber at Huntsville—all with regard to the forms of the statutes.

Watts is above 70 years of age, a strong man who has been serving the people of Angelina for more than twenty years—but the mob is still after him and would defeat him for re-election because he would not permit them to violate The Law.

It is a strange commentary and an evidence of just how deeply imbued is the mob spirit with many of us.

Angelina has had many mobs during the past three years. Men and women have been beaten, tortured, maimed; and the members of the mobs which perpetrated the outrages could easily be ascertained. But they have not been, and there has been encouragement to th lawless ones.

According to some authorities the surface of the human body is about sixteen square feet.

New Treatment for Varicose or Swollen Veins

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength), at any pharmacist and start to reduce the veins and bunches at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal. It is guaranteed.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that enlarged glands, wens and even goitre disappear when used steadily. Palace Drug Store. Mail orders accepted.

SULPHUR OVERFLOWED BY HEAVY RAINS

J. D. Pratt of Prattville, Delta county, who was in Paris on business Wednesday, reported that Sulphur bottom west of the levee had been overflowed this week and that the stream was still bank full and still spreading out in the bottom in places. It has extended out over some of the land that has been plowed, but there has not been any damage of any importance resulting from it.

Mr. Pratt said that a lot of people in his country are going wild over cotton on account of having received a good price for last year's crop. He said that numbers of farmers are not going to plant any corn this year. They argue that they can take five acres of cotton and with the money derived from the crop made on it they can buy as much corn as fifteen acres will yield.

Miss Mabel Minton and Fannie Laura Duncan will be better than Romeo and Juliet Friday night at the Manless Minstrel at the High School Auditorium.

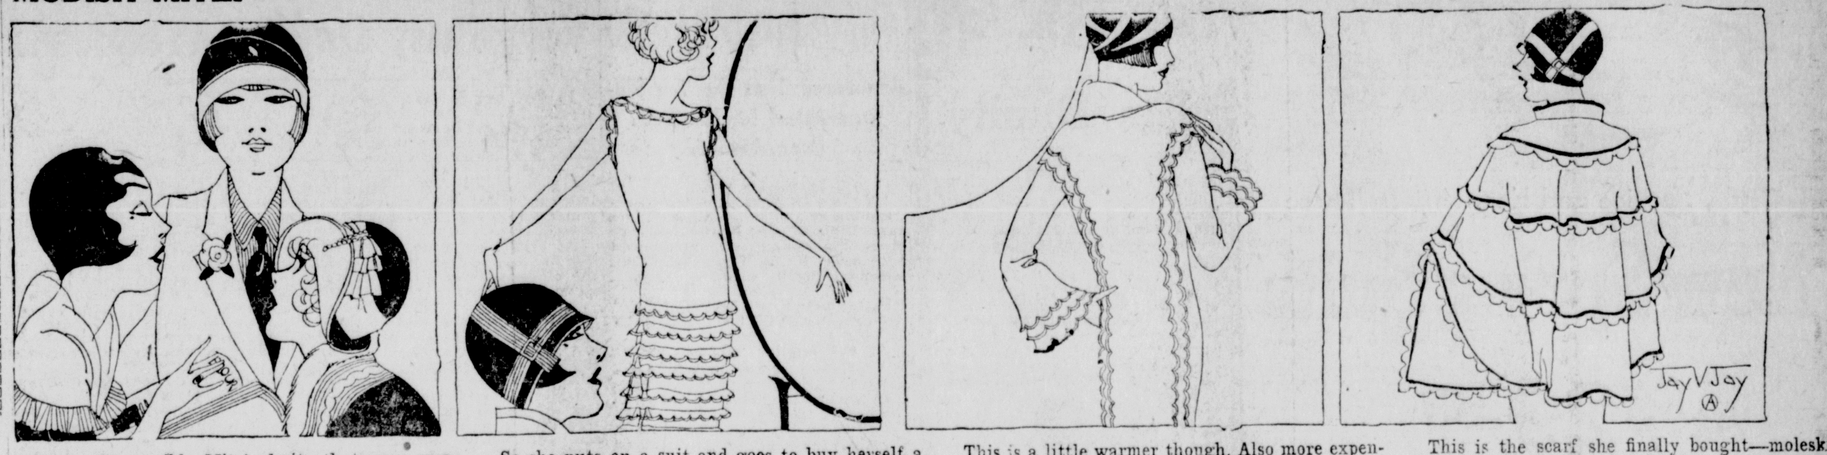
MODISH MITZI — She Has No Faith In Spring — By JAY V. JAY



It is quite possible, Mitzi admits, that warm weather will come sometime. She has, however, no really firm belief that such will be the case. That's why she bought herself this spring jacket of dyed beige flat caracul. Adelaide has on a smart new dress and hates to admit it's really not warm enough to wear.

So she puts on a suit and goes to buy herself a fur neckpiece. Because tailored suits are so fashionable this spring there are dozens of good looking fur pieces to look at. This one is real seal and is round—like a bolster—with a rosette of fur at one end. It looks well with her braid-trimmed suit.

This is a little warmer though. Also more expensive, since it is fox. Choose your color and your price. Large animal scarfs like this—bushy furs—are just as fashonable as the small flatter chokers. It is all a matter of one's personal taste and pocket book. (Notice Adelaide's small smart tricorne.)

This is the scarf she finally bought—moleskin, made to fasten like the fashionable silk scarfs that are worn with tailored suits this season. This style is seen also in other furs that are short, flat and silky. Mitzi's hat is worth a word—black Milan with a patent leather buckle to cover the front.

Don't Envy Me

Youth and beauty are at your command

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I made myself a famous beauty. For 35 years as a stage star I have played a beauty's part. I have kept that beauty. At a grand mother's age I retain my youthful bloom.

I owe this to four great beauty helps, perfected by French experts. They form, I believe, the greatest beauty helps in existence. They have brought to many of my friends just what they brought to me. I am convinced that millions can obtain like benefits from them. So I am placing these supreme helps at every woman's call.

White Youth Clay

One is my Youth Clay. Not like the crude and muddy clays so many still employ. This is a superclay, white, refined and dainty—perfected by 20 years of scientific study. Its results will amaze and delight you.

Youth Clay purges the skin of all that clogs or mars it. It revives the skin—makes it clear and rosy. It firms the skin, combats all lines and wrinkles, reduces enlarged pores. It multiplies one's beauty. And my girlish complexion shows how it keeps one's youth.

Many women seem to drop ten years with one application of the White Youth Clay. The cost is 50c and $1.

Two Master Creams

My Youth Cream is my cold cream. It cntains both lemon and strawberry, also all the best that science knows to foster the fine texture of the skin.

I apply it after the clay. Also as a night cream, also daytimes as a powder base. Never is my skin without it. In all my world-wide search I never found another cream which would bring comparable results. The price is 60 cents.

My Facial Youth is a liquid cleanser which I found in France. It contains no animal, no vegetable fat. The skin cannot absorb it. So it cleans to the depths, then departs. All the refuse, all the dirt and grime come out with it. No other method leaves the skin so clean.

The greatest beauty experts now advise this cleanser, but they charge $3 for it. My Facial Youth costs 75c.

My Hair Youth

My hair is my chief glory. It is heavy, silky, lustrous and grows finer every year. I have never known dandruff, falling hair or gray hair. The reason lies in my Hair Youth. It is based on lifetimes of hair study. I apply it with an eye dropper, directly to the scalp. There it combats the hardened oil and dandruff which stifle the hair roots. It stimulates and fertilizes. My luxuriant hair shows what that means, both to men and women. My Hair Youth costs 50c and $1.

All druggists and toilet counters now supply Edna Wallace Hopper's products. So all who wish may now enjoy these matchless beauty helps. Try one and you will use them all. Go now and learn how much they mean to you. With each one comes my Beauty Book and a guarantee. Edna Wallace Hopper, 536 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago.

Delightful Informal Recital Given

On Wednesday evening at the studio of Mrs. Corinne Dargan-Brooks a delightful informal recital was given, a number of invited guests being present to hear Dale Haven, who is directing the music at a series of services held at the Central Presbyterian church this week.

Mr. Haven is an accomplished pianist, and the wide range of his repertoire was shown in the varied numbers he presented. He has studied with some of the masters of the instrument, and this is shown in his truly wonderful technique and his sympathetic rendition of varying moods and melodies. Ranging from the intricate arrangement by Gottscalk of the "Miserere" and other themes from "Il Trovatore," to his own variations of such familiar airs as "Old Black Joe," his numbers showed him to be perfectly at home in practically every field of musical composition. Haunting minor themes and crashing crescendos he handled with equal skill, and the entire attention of his audience was held throughout his varied selections.

He was repeatedly encored and graciously responded each time, giving one number by special request.

Among the Paris musicians who alternated with Mr. Haven's renditions were Miss Mignon House, Mrs. Frank Fuller, Mrs. Frean Grimes and Felts Fort, and Miss Clara Dargan. Their numbers were most appreciatively received, and made a well balanced program for the evening.

This was a most unusual opportunity, welcomed by many who had wished to hear Mr. Haven in other musical fields besides the purely religous themes used at the church services. They were in no way disappointed, and the evening is one which will be remembered among the season's musical events.

McGlasson, and a paper prepared by Mrs. Merrick Davis was read in her absence by Mrs. J. B. Strong. The topic was "How Clara Driscoll saved the Alamo for Texans."

A delightful refreshment course was served at the close of the program. The next meeting will be held on April 16.

USED CARS ARE TO BE DISPLAYED

Dealers Who Participate in the Used Car Week Will Show What They Have

Dealers are busy clearing their floors of new cars to make way for a special used car display during used car week which begins Saturday, March 22.

It is hoped that many customers who have heretofore looked with disfavor on the purchase of a used or so-called "second hand" car will make it a point to visit the salesrooms of the different dealers and secure first hand information of the type of used cars offered for re-sale.

Any new car that is sold and delivered to a customer immediately becomes a used car. Very often a car is taken in trade that has been very little service, the customer having decided that he prefers a closed car or some other type car. These cars are re-sold at attractive prices and the second purchaser gets the advantage of a new car at a greatly reduced price.

Many such cars will be on display.

You are cordially invited to visit the salesrooms of the different dealers during "Used Car Week" and inspect the cars offered for sale.

Help make Paris Used Car Week a success.

Mary Osborne and Nellie Long invite you to come and play with them Friday night at the Manless Minstrel.

SPANISH-AMERICAN VETS HOLD REGULAR MEETING

The local post of the Spanish-American war veterans held its regular meeting Tuesday night at the American Legion hall on Lamar avenue and had a very good attendance. E. R. Stubblefield presided at the meeting in the absence of Commander L. B. Stephens and the meeting was devoted principally to the consideration of matters for the good of the order.

Plans were discussed for strengthening the camp by building up outposts at Clarksville, Bonham, and one or two other places. The camp already has had application for membership from four Bonham men who served in the war. A company of about 70 men was raised at that place voluntarily and went to the front at the beginning of the war, and it is expected to get several members from there.

The camp is figuring on going to Bonham before long and putting on a social entertainment for the purpose of getting acquainted with the people there.

STARVED CATS PREY ON YOUNG CHICKENS

There are said to be several incubators in the city in which people have invented for the purpose of hatching and raising chickens to sell. Stray cats around town are said to be a serious drawback to the industry, there being many half-starved ones that prey on the young chicks. A citizen who went in the poultry raising business last year said that he lost a hundred little chickens that were devoured by cats. He said he set steel traps for the cats and caught twelve and killed them.

CITY COUNCIL CALLED SESSION

Held to Consider an Offer from Amarillo for the Purchase of a Pump

The city council held a brief called session Wednesday morning to consider a proposition from a gentleman representing the city of Amarillo who came here with the view to purchasing one of the pumps that have been in use in the old waterworks system at the city lake, the construction of the new lake having rendered them of no use in the present waterworks system.

As was announced at the meeting of the council a test was made of the pump Wednesday and it proved to be in good order and to work entirely satisfactory.

After the test was made to the satisfaction of the agent of the Amarillo government he made an offer to the city of Paris for the pump. The price offered was not satisfactory to the council and was not accepted. No agreement was reached as to the price at the meeting, but negotiations are still pending and the agent is still in the city waiting for instructions as to whether he is authorized to increase his offer.

He said he has been getting to them "pretty peart" and filled several Wednesday. The culvert work has been going on right along. The men can work all the time at this kind of work except when it is raining, and a good many culverts have been repaired. The tractor can't be used during the bad weather.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

FIRST STEP IN TREATMENT IS CALOTABS, THE PURIFIED AND REFINED CALOMEL TABLETS THAT ARE NAUSEALESS, SAFE AND SURE.

Doctors have found by experience that no medicine for colds, coughs, sore throat and influenza can be depended upon for full effectiveness until the liver is made thoroughly active. That is why the first step in the treatment is the nauseless calomel tablets called Calotabs, which are free from the sickening and weakening effects of the old style calomel. Doctors also point out the fact that an active liver may go a long way towards preventing influenza and colds and is one of the most important factors in enabling the patient to successfully withstand an attack and ward off pneumonia.

One or two Calotabs at bed time, with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with your eating, your system is purified and you are feeling fine, with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Genuine Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents for the large family package; ten cents for the small vest-pocket size. (adv.)

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyocena, Wis.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."—Mrs. Ida Gerritz, Wyocena, Wis.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after childbirth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after childbirth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

SUPERANNUATE FUND RAISED

Announced That the Ten Millions Asked for Has Been Oversubscribed

(Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS, Mar. 19—Over-subscription of the ten million dollars superannuate fund of the Southern Methodist church was announced here today by Dr. Luther E. Todd, secretary of the board of finance.

MR. GARMAN AT LADIES' MEETING ON MONDAY

At the regular weekly meeting of the ladies of the First Congregational church, Rev. F. J. Garman gave an address on the sixth chapter of Revelations.

Preceding the talk, he gave a short synopsis of the fourth and fifth chapters, which are closely connected with the sixth chapter. The fourth and fifth chapters represent the vision revealing the lamb on the throne holding the sealed book, and the entire three chapters deal with the judgment of seals.

When the first seal is removed the living creature calls for the judgment to come. The first represents a rider on a white horse, signifying that he is conquering and is out to conquer. This is interpreted to mean the revised Roman empire during the great tribulation period.

The second is represented by a red horse signifying civil war; the third by a black horse, signifying famine; the fourth, death; fifth exposed the souls of numbers of those who had been beheaded for their witness for the word of God, and the sixth the great earthquake which speaks of the disruption of the Roman empire.

These meetings are conducted each week by Rev. Garman and are truly interesting. Next week he will take up the seventh chapter of Revelation and explain it. A cordial invitation is extended to you to attend.

SECOND TERM OF THE EXTENSION COURSE

The second term of the extension courses offered in this city by the East Texas State Normal college of Commerce will begin Saturday, March 29.

Forty students must enroll before the instructors will offer the work in Paris and those who are interested are asked to respond to this announcement, in order that the necessary number may be enrolled to maintain the work here.

Teachers who are now teaching may transfer their credits to the college at Commerce when their schools have closed, and by taking work now, they can make credits before the summer term begins.

Quite a number of the teachers of Paris and the rural communities have expressed their appreciation of the work, and all who are interested are urged to report at the Paris high school Saturday, March 22, for enrollment and classification.

MISSIONARY GUILD CENTRAL PRESBYTERIAN

The Missionary Guild of the Central Presbyterian church met on Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Record on Lamar avenue with Miss Nannie Hill assisting as hostess.

The meeting was opened with the repetition of the Lord's prayer. Mrs. Morgan Johnson gave a beautiful devotional and an interesting lesson on Japan was given by Mrs. Hancock, assisted by Mmes. Stell, Scott, Dohoney, Haynes and Baker.

A rising vote of thanks was extended the retiring officers who will be succeeded by the new ones at the next meeting, April 7.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Baker.

During the social half hour, delicious sandwiches and tea were served.

MUSIC AND GOSPEL AT P. C. C. PRAYER SERVICE

This evening at 7:30 the regular weekly prayer service will be held at Paris Commercial college and a cordial invitation, especially to young people, is extended.

The old fashion hymns are always a feature of this service, and give everyone an opportunity for joining in the services.

DR. HENDRICK TO TALK TO LIONS

Noted Evangelist Will Be the Principal Speaker at the Luncheon Today

The Lions are to have a big program today—and in addition there will be three prizes for distribution; no one elegible for more than one prize.

Miss Eunice Fisher will give a reading; Prof. Haven will sing and will give a piano number and Dr. Hendrick will make an address.

No Lion need have fear that he will be "stauck" beyond the usual time for getting away. Dr. Hendrick is the sort of man who knows his folks. He always quits on time, depending upon the speed with which he can pour a few thoughts into the heads of business men who have lots of things to think about. He doesn't need a lot of time in which to impress his hearers—and that he'll prove to the Lions today.

Dr. Stephens will be chairman for the day.

"Out There in the Sunshine With You"—they will sing it to you at the Manless Minustrel Friday night.

Stories That Have Made Me Laugh

By Harry Klein

Levi had a fire in his clothing store. The day after the fire, his friend Cohen met him on the street and said: "Vat's the matter, you look so vorried, Levi? Did you lose by that fire you had yesterday?"

"My boy," said Levi, "Believe me, I am ruined. That insurance Company has gone broke. If I had only known about this two days ago, I vould haf had no fire."

Dr Hendrick and Mr Haven Had Very Busy Day On Wednesday

In evidence to the fact that Dr. Hendrick and Mr. Haven have won favor in Paris is proved in the many invitations they have to be in attendance at various meetings. All day Wednesday, in spite of the downpour, they were kept busy speaking and singing to the many who were interested in their messages.

At 8:30 they went to the Paris Commercial college and conducted the chapel services. Dr. Hendrick gave an inspiring talk to these young people on "The Trophy of Life," bringing out the trophies of health, and character in his talk. Mr. Haven gave a prayer and had the music in charge.

At 10 o'clock, the usual morning meeting was conducted at the Central Presbyterian church and Dr. Hendrick spoke to a large and appreciative audience.

The men's service which was held at the Lamar State bank was attended by a hundred business men of the city and Dr. Hendrick gave a touching talk on "Judas vs Paul," bringing out the idea that Judas asked what they would pay him having in his heart the idea of personal and earthly gain, and how he died a suicide. But Paul lived close to Christ, spent his life working and telling of Christ and at last he died for Jesus Christ. He not only attained earthly gain, but also eternal gain.

Mr. Haven and Dr. Wear, at 2 o'clock, went to the West Paris school where they listened to the children sing, and Mr. Haven gave a number of selections, and both of them made short talks.

The children, in spite of the rain, had a good practice at 4 o'clock. They will practice every afternoon at 4 o'clock, in preparation of a great children's chorus which will be given one night next week.

Then, at the close of the day—the evening service, Dr. Hendrick again spoke to an appreciative congregation.

For all the good old Southern Spreads—

Freshly crushed juice of the cane

Hot Breads! Waffles! Griddle Cakes!

WHAT wonder dishes they become when served with this luscious product of the sugar cane! So delicious and delicately flavored is Brer Rabbit it brings back all the mem'ries of old plantation days. Pure, wholesome nourishment for growing boys and girls. A toothsome treat for grown-up men and women. A worthy spread for all the hot breads and hot cakes for which the South has long been famous.

Down in New Orleans great porcelain-lined tank cars, clean as sparkling china, bring in the thick syrup from the finest cane that grows in the South. There in a modern laboratory it is rigidly tested by experts for sugar content, purity, and goodness. The syrup which tests highest is reserved for Brer Rabbit.

Packed under ideal conditions, where everyone who handles it is spotlessly dressed; protected from sunlight, kept at even temperature by modern refrigeration the syrup loses none of its delightful full flavor in the packing. No other syrup can give you the delicate even flavor you get in every can of Brer Rabbit.

Ask your grocer for Brer Rabbit. It comes two ways: the straight pure juice of the sugar cane (Blue Label), and a milder syrup of modified sweetness (Brown Label). Packed in New Orleans by the world's greatest producers of cane products, Penick & Ford, Ltd., New Orleans, La.

REST OF GOODS WERE RECOVERED

Found Buried in a Barn and Two Arrests Follow Confession by Mexican

There were further developments Wednesday morning in the burglary of the Ideal Laundry which led to the recovery of all of the stolen clothing. The Mexican boy who was arrested by City Marshal Harrell and Officer Rogers Tuesday night made a confession and showed the officers where the goods had been concealed. Two suits of clothes and eleven pairs of pants were found buried in a barn at the Farmers' Seed and Gin company's plant.

A hole had been dug in the ground and the clothes put in a towsack and covered up and a piece of sheetiron placed on top of the hole after it was covered.

Henderson Nelson, a negro, and a white boy were arrested on the statement of the Mexican boy and all three of them are in jail. Henderson did not participate in the burglary, but the Mexican claimed that there was an agreement with him to sell the stolen goods and divide with them.

Officer Shannon arrested three negro boys Wednesday morning on the charge of stealing a pair of pants and a pair of shoes and some other things from an automobile at the Southland oil mill. The stolen articles belonged to a painter who was employed in painting the smokestack at the mill. The boys were turned over to the county.

One of the boys had been previously arrested by Officer Shannon on the charge of stealing about a dozen pockeknives from Miller's store out near Evergreen cemetery.

The goods that were stolen from the Ideal Laundry and recovered were worth nearly $200.

CATARRH KEEPS WOMEN SLAVES TO ITS AWFUL EFFECT

Fully Ninety Per Cent of the Girls and Women Who Are Weak, Nervous, Irritable, Undernourished, Thin and Sallow Are Victims of This Dreaded Malady.

Not until the theory that catarrh of their generative organs is the direct cause of the nervousness, irritability, irregularity and pains so many women suffer from, was proven by the remarkable and almost miraculous things which the phenomenal medicine known as St. Joseph's G. F. P. is doing since its introduction here, did these unfortunate women really know the true cause of their trouble.

And the further fact that they were never able to get rid of these troubles after trying many remedies which were supposed to overcome the cause, only proves more convincingly than ever that St. Joseph' G. F. P. is the first direct specific for this dreaded malady among women.

"The reason this condition is so prevalent among girls and women of today," says one of the leading authorities and specialists on the health and care of the female sysem, "is because they are undernourished and their organs are not strong enough to resist the inroads which it makes upon them.

"A sound stomach, able to thoroughly digest every bit of food you eat, is the first and most vital thing needed by every woman to be healthy and free from pain and irregularity, because without it, no matter how much or what you eat, your food is not being changed into living tissue and strength for nerves and muscles. Without firm, healthy tissue, strong muscles to resist wear and tear of daily excess, and steady nerves to withstand exhaustion, a weakened condition is set up, and that is where catarrh gets its hold.

"From then on any one of many nagging and distressing ailments have their inception, usually nervousness, irritability, headaches, pains in the back and sides, melancholy and that continuous."

A VARIED ASSORTMENT DISAGREEABLE WEATHER

There was quite a variety of weather in Paris Wednesday and all in all it was one of the most disagreeable days of the winter. About 9 o'clock it sleeted a little and was followed by a cold rain which lasted all day with a variation about noon when there were a few snowflakes. About 10 o'clock at night it began to snow again. There was not much business transacted during the day, and there were few persons on the street at night.

RHEUMATIC NEURITIS LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint bottle of Allenrhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not show the way to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. Palace Drug Store. Mail orders accepted.

COTTON DECLINED ON VERY WET MAP

Mere Rumors Were Deemed of More Importance Than the Actual Rain Facts

(Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, March 19.—Cotton opened higher with first trades showing gains of 31 to 35 points on old crop months and 28 on October. May soon advanced 5 points and October 3 points additional.

Good cables, sales of 15,000 bales of spots in Liverpool, a very bad weather map, storm warning for the East Gulf coast and a bullish weekly weather report were the stimulating influences.

The market turned decidedly easier as the morning progressed, selling being encouraged by fears that the final ginnings report due tomorrow will be bearish.

An unfounded rumor that the committee of experts appointed to investigate department of commerce statistics would sustain the department's figures was also more or less of an influence, as was also poor dry goods demand.

The market firmed up during the afternoon on buying back by early sellers and shorts covering, the main influence being the continued bad weather, reports of rivers overflowing their banks in Texas, and fear that the disturbance in the gulf for which storm warnings have been ordered for the Texas and Louisiana coasts may bring more rain over a wide portion of the cotton region.

New York advised that several steamers with cotton for Bremen were returning owing to a big strike at the German port.

Futures closed barely steady at net decline sof 2 to 22 points.

MUCH REALIZING A KNOCK TO PRICES

NEW YORK, March 19.—The cotton market opened firm at an advance of 15 to 20 points in response to relatively firm Liverpool cables, increased spot sales in the English market, advances in foreign exchange and an unfavorably weekly review of weather and farming conditions in the South by the weather bureau. There was considerable realizing and the improvement was not fully maintained during the early trading.

The market was unsettled later owing to continued realizing or liquidation which appeared to be promoted by the action of the stock market and the failure of reports from the cotton goods trade to show improvement.

Early afternoon reports of a steadier turn in the stock market led to extensive covering by local traders, which resulted in rallies of 20 to 28 points.

Futures closed steady.

BEARS PERSISTED IN ATTACKS UPON STOCKS

NEW YORK, March 19.—Speculators for the decline renewed their attack against today's stock market, concentrating on the motors, independent steel and shipping shares, but they encountered much strong resistance and were again forced to cover extensively in closing dealings. Buying for the long account was influenced by easy money rates, call funds being obtainable at 3 per cent, the lowest since August, 1922. Sales approximated one million shares.

GRANULATED SUGAR HAD ANOTHER CUT

NEW YORK, March 19.—Raw sugar was easier in tone early today due to increased offerings from Cuba and Porto Rico. Holders were asking 6.65, a decline of 1-8 cent but no sales were reported.

Refined sugar prices were unchanged, to ten points lower, the list ranging from 8.40 to 8.60 for fine granulated.

Business was light.

WHEAT DECLINED BUT RECOVERED A LITTLE

CHICAGOG, March 19.—The decline carried the wheat market to the lowest level since July 30 last, but then something of a rally ensued. The close was steady 3-4c to 7-8 and 1 cent, May 1.04 3-4 to 1.04 7-8 and July 1.05 7-8.

MAY CORN SAGGED BUT RECOVERED

CHICAGO, March 19.—A little sag to 77 cents for May corn was witnessed. Selling subsequently lacked volume, and the market recovered to a material extent. The close was unsettled 1-4 to 1-2 cent net lower, May 77 5-8 to 77 3-4 cents.

NEW YORK, March 19.—Coffee futures declined 50 to 68 points today, under the liquidation accompanied by reports of lower markets in Brazil and a decrease in the domestic demand.

PEOPLE WHO WERE PIMPLY FACED

Are so happy about their experience with the wonderful Black and White Ointment which gets rid of all their skin worrites, that they would like to tell those who are still troubled with such things as blotches, pimples, bumps, rash, eczema, "breaking out," etc., how foolish they are to keep on going around looking like they had lost all their interest in life.

It is simply a question of knowing what it takes to clean out these diseases of the skin, and the makers of Black and White Ointment seem to have just what the skin needs to get rid of them quickly. The fact that nearly two million packages of it are sold every year proves how successful it is.

Black and White Ointment is economically priced, in liberal packages. The 50c size contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have it.

ELMO DEMONSTRATION

This Week and Next

"ELMO" FOR BEAUTY

5 Minutes a Day Creates Beauty

Mrs. Bingham, Beauty Expert at Perkins Brothers, Says It Costs But Half a Penny.

Before coming to Paris Mrs. Bingham, Beauty Specialist, representing the Elmo Toilet Preparations made an extensive study of the southwestern climate effects on the complexion and says that the correct use of the right creams will improve and beautify anyone's complexion even in our trying climate. She further says that it takes but five minutes a day and the cost is but half a penny a day for the treatment necessary.

Continuing, Mrs. Bingham says: "One may have good eyes, regular features and glorious hair, but if the complexion is sallow or colorless there is little beauty in the face." Modern beauty creams do much to eradicate any unnatural conditions of the skin, and she personally recommends Elmo Preparations for this climate.

Mrs. Bingham will be with us the rest of this week and all of next. Get a few of your friends together and come up to our store for a "mud" massage. These are the exact treatments that you would receive in a beauty parlor and they are Absolutely Free.

Call Mrs. Bingham at 213 and arrange a date for yourself and friends and enjoy a real "mud" party.

J. LEE TARPLEY TO SPEAK HERE

Will Attend the Political Conference to Be Held by the Farm Labor Union

The Farm Labor Union of Lamar county will hold a political conference a week from next Friday night for the purpose of discussing the different candidates who are aspiring for office. J. Lee Tarpley of Fannin county, chairman of the State political conference, will be present at the meeting and make a speech.

A local member of the Farm Labor Union stated that while the merits of candidates for different offices will be discussed it is not certain that any action will be taken toward giving particular candidates its indorsement.

It was intimated that the action of the State conference at Dallas in indorsing T. W. Davidson for governor and Barry Miller for lieutenant governor is disapproved by a large number of the members of the Farm Labor Union of Lamar county and that it is probable that the county union will decline to indorse the State conference in regard to these two.
